

Irondale Theatrical Rental Information July 2014- June 2015

Thank you for your interest in the Irondale Center

Not-for-Profit Production

$225 per hour

$2,500 per day

$8,000 for productions with budgets $ 149,000 or –

$9,000 per week for productions with budgets $150,000 or +

Commercial Productions (For Profit)

$375 per hour

$4,000 per day

$12,500 per week

Concessions – if not operated by Irondale $200/performance or $800/week

Staff required – may be hired through Irondale

Ushers

Box Office Manager

Front Door Monitor

Additional Equipment – pricing on request

Scrim and or cyclorama, Projectors, Microphones

Online ticket sales – Irondale’s system can be used to sell your tickets for an additional fee.

A rental day is 10AM-10 PM and includes one tech person, use of lighting and sound systems in their rep plots, and seating. Weekly rentals start on Tuesday and end (strike included) on Monday. Irondale is a fully equipped theater and has additional equipment available for additional fees. Changes to the rep plots can be negotiated for additional fees.

There is no access to the Irondale Center on Sundays.

Please note that while Irondale has two dressing rooms, only one is equipped with a toilet and running water.

Irondale’s Class schedule is Mondays from 4-6PM and Saturdays from 11AM-2PM. Irondale reserves exclusive use of the space during those times. It may be possible that these time slots can be bought out with advance notice for a fee and with the agreement of the Irondale Education Director.

Under certain circumstances space subsidy money may be available to offset some or all of the costs of the space. Irondale also co-produces with certain companies. Proposals are accepted all year round.